Every day it's something new

November 15-17, 2025

10 Villa Riberolle, Paris, 75020

Presented by Stella Berkofsky

“Being is alive. Life brings life. Being repeats itself, a fact of existence. That repetition we call time because it implies time’s existence. What’s then reproduced, repeatedly and with no interruption? The answer is: Being itself, the return of the Same, for an eternity of time.”

(Etel Adnan, Sea and Fog)

Every day it's something new is a show of new photographs by Paige Labuda made by a beach and then in a darkroom, installed in a blue room in the 20th.

Paige Labuda, b. 2000 California, lives and works in New York City.

She graduated from New York University in 2023.

Previous exhibitions include I love you to the max with Turquoise (NYC) in 2024.
